

April 9, 2015 Connect Ed message:

Good evening bulls, we are calling with some important information about upcoming events at WRHS.

We invite all parents, guardians and the school community to attend an informational night to address current concerns that involve the WRHS community. This event will be held next Thursday, April 16th from 6 to 8 pm. Our Principal, Robyn White, along with the PCSO, will lead the night with updates that are happening around campus to ensure the safety of all.

All 9th and 10th grade students will participate in the FSA Reading assessment during the month of April. Students have been scheduled for 2 consecutive days between Monday April 13 and Thursday April 30. English teachers have been informing students of their testing dates and location, and student lists are now posted by Student Services and in the Cafeteria

Any student interested in the iPad Program for the 2015-2016 school year needs to complete an application by May 1st. This deadline includes all recommendation forms as well. All students interested, even those currently in the iPad program, must apply for the 2015-2016 school year.

The Drama Crew will be teaming up with the Culinary Arts Program for a murder mystery dinner theatre called Dinner at 8, Dead by 9. It is being held this Saturday, April 11th and there are two shows, the 4:30 PM matinee that is 15.00 per person or 25.00 per couple and 7:30 PM that is 25.00 per person or 45.00 per couple. Please see our school website for further information.

The April edition of the school newsletter is available on our school website. It includes end of the year information as well as a senior class timeline.

The WRHS football team is hosting a car wash this Saturday from 8:30 am until 3 pm at the Advance Auto Parts store next to Wal-Mart. Please stop by to get your car washed and support the team.

Thank you and have a good evening!
