

1st Annual Call of Duty Advanced Warfare Tournament

Xbox 360

Presented by the WRHS Gaming Club

The WRHS Gaming Club will be hosting its first Call of Duty tournament on Saturday, March 7th starting at 11am in the school cafeteria and is expected to end around 5pm. The entrance fee is $7.00 for participants who bring their own controller, and $10 for participants who need to borrow one.

If a participant signs up to bring their own controller but does not bring it on the day of the tournament they must pay the $3 difference at the door or they will be disqualified without refund. Participants must pay and sign up by no later than February 20th.

The first 50 participants to pay/register will receive a free gaming club backpack on the day of the tournament

*3rd party controllers will not be allowed for use during the tournament- quality checks of all controllers will be done prior to their use in the tournament and any participant who brings a 3rd party controller will need to pay the $3 difference to borrow one, or they will be disqualified without refund. Only Microsoft licensed controllers will be permitted for use in the tournament.

Food and drink will be available for purchase in the cafeteria from the culinary department during the tournament

Call of Duty Advanced Warfare is rated M for mature by the ESRB rating system due to blood/gore and violence. We are requiring all participants provide signed parent consent for admission into the tournament. Participants without parent consent will not be allowed to enter. Participants MUST bring the signed form below with their admission money to register for the tournament.
