What is the AP Pre-Administration Session?

The AP Pre-Administration session is a gathering of all students who will be taking AP exams for the purpose of completing mandatory paperwork in advance of testing.

What should I bring to the AP Pre-Administration session?

- ✓ Sharpened #2 pencil
- ✓ Social Security number

If students want to use a social security number for identification purposes (which is optional) they should be sure to know the correct number. students should be consistent with their choice of identification so keep that in mind when Using your SS number.

- ✓ Highest education level of parents/guardians

Students will also be asked to indicate the highest level of education completed by their parents or legal guardians. Students who do not know the answer to these questions should ask his/her parent or guardian before the session.
